PRESENTING

Highlights '65

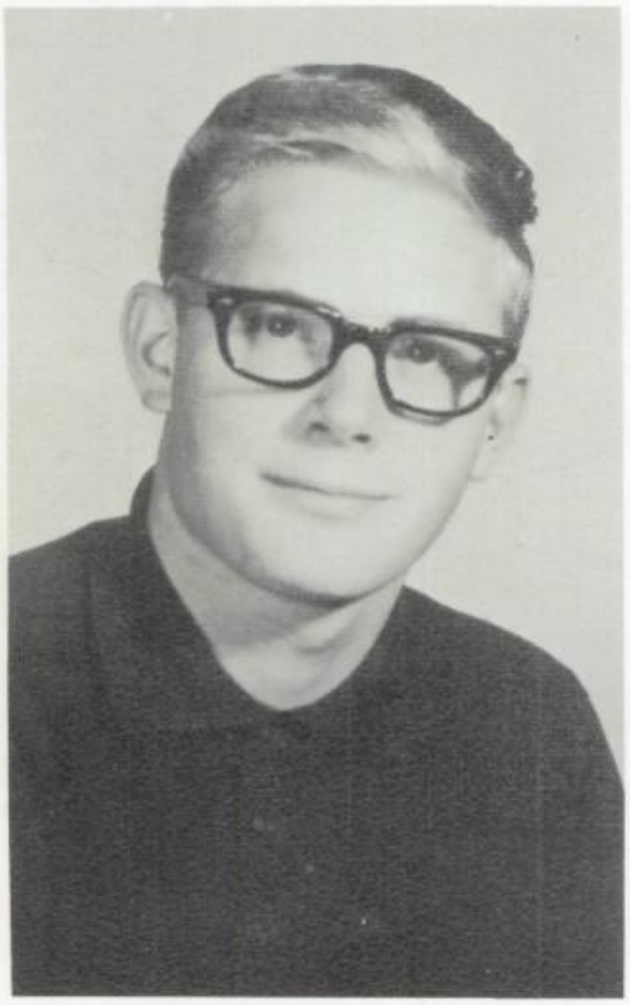
Editor.....Christine Schneider
Advisor.....Mrs. E. Eastman
Photographs by.....Rogers' Studio

The theme of our yearbook is "Great Oaks From Little Acorns Grow." We have chosen this theme, because we feel that it expresses the way a student matures throughout high school from his freshman year to graduation.

We wish to thank all of the students and teachers who have made this book possible. They not only helped in the actual production of the book, but they also helped write the story which is told here.

IN MEMORY

of



Mark McNally

Edward Svec

Hugh Gallagher

John Bousum

Tragedy struck Avon High School this year with the death of four of its students. The staff was unable to obtain photos of Hugh Gallagher and John Bousum.

WE DEDICATE this yearbook to Mrs. E. Pauline Cooper whose service to Avon High has been of the highest quality and whose interest in the individual student has been unfailing. In her years here Mrs. Cooper has held many posts: home economics teacher, girls' counselor, advisor to the National Honor Society; however, her main job now is the management of our new library.

Mrs. Cooper, we thank you for the help and generosity which you have so willingly bestowed upon the students of Avon High.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

SEATED: Mrs. Corrine Peak, Mrs. Ruth Greene, Mr. Aloysius Hassel, and Mrs. Susan Svec.
STANDING: Mr. Robert DeChant, Mr. Vernon Knickrehm, and superintendent, Mr. Thomas C. Simpson.

Superintendent
Thomas C. Simpson

Mr. Donald Vansant, new to Avon High this year, has been principal during the 1964-1965 school year. He has shown his interest in the students and has initiated an effective student council. He has intense devotion to his duty and has realized many contributions to the success of our school. Student freedoms and choices have been accented, and most rules have been prohibited.

BUS DRIVERS

KNEELING: Mr. Freeland, Mr. Knight, Mr. Klingshirn, and Mr. Mitchell. STANDING: Mrs. Urig, Mrs. Pincombe, Mrs. Bockmiller, and Mrs. Klasek.

COOKS

Our school lunches are skillfully prepared by our kitchen staff. They are: Mrs. DeChant, Mrs. Persensky, and Mrs. Arnold.

KITCHEN HELP

The students who have been a great help to our cooks in the past year are: Jim Nemeth, Tom Klingshirn, Judy Pivarnik, Kathy Pivarnik, Nancy Johnson, Alice Ruble, and Mary Ann Zilka.

Nancy Johnson, pictured on the right, has worked in Avon Schools' kitchens for six years. The cooks wish to especially thank her.

AVON HIGH

CUSTODIANS

Pictured above is Mr. George Mitchell. As head maintenance director, he is in charge of the general maintenance of all three of Avon's public schools.

Mr. Lee (Whitey) Hubbard is the day custodian at Avon High. He is always nearby when students or teachers need assistance. Mr. Laverne Bratton is hard at work when classes have ended for the day. All three of these men are to be commended for the fine job they have done this year.

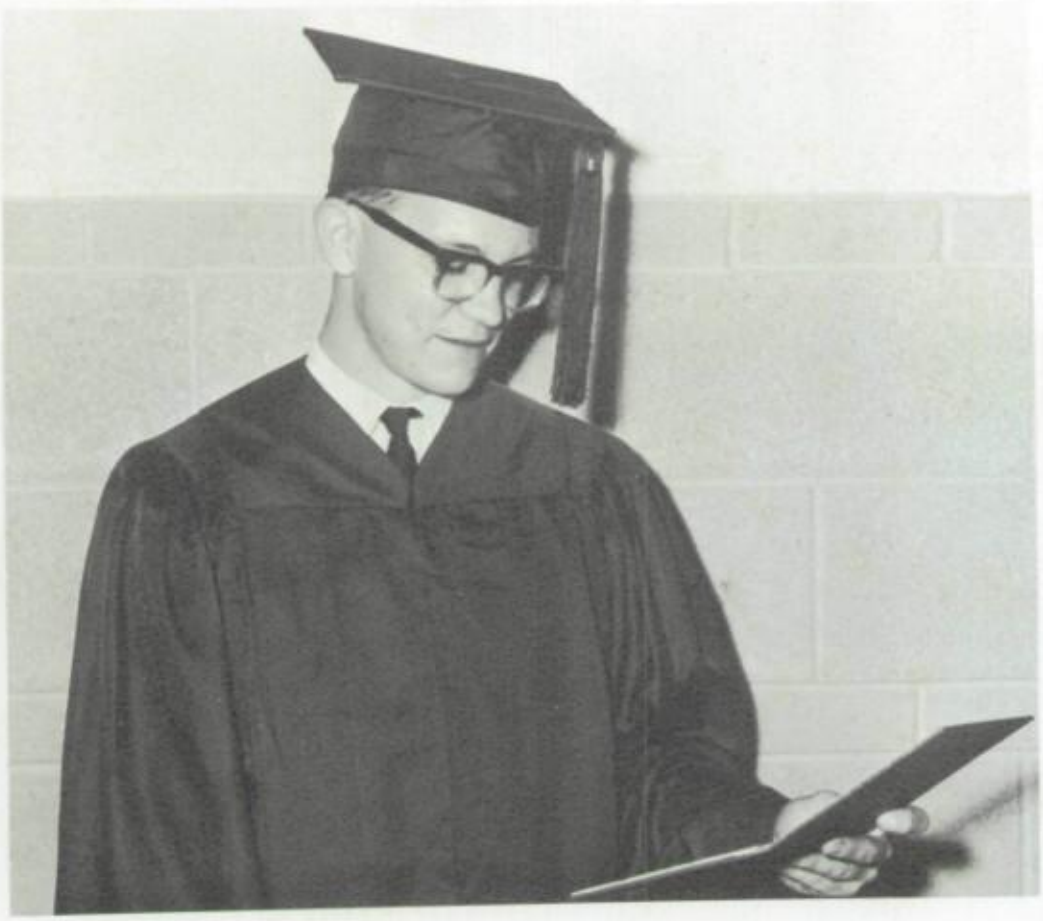
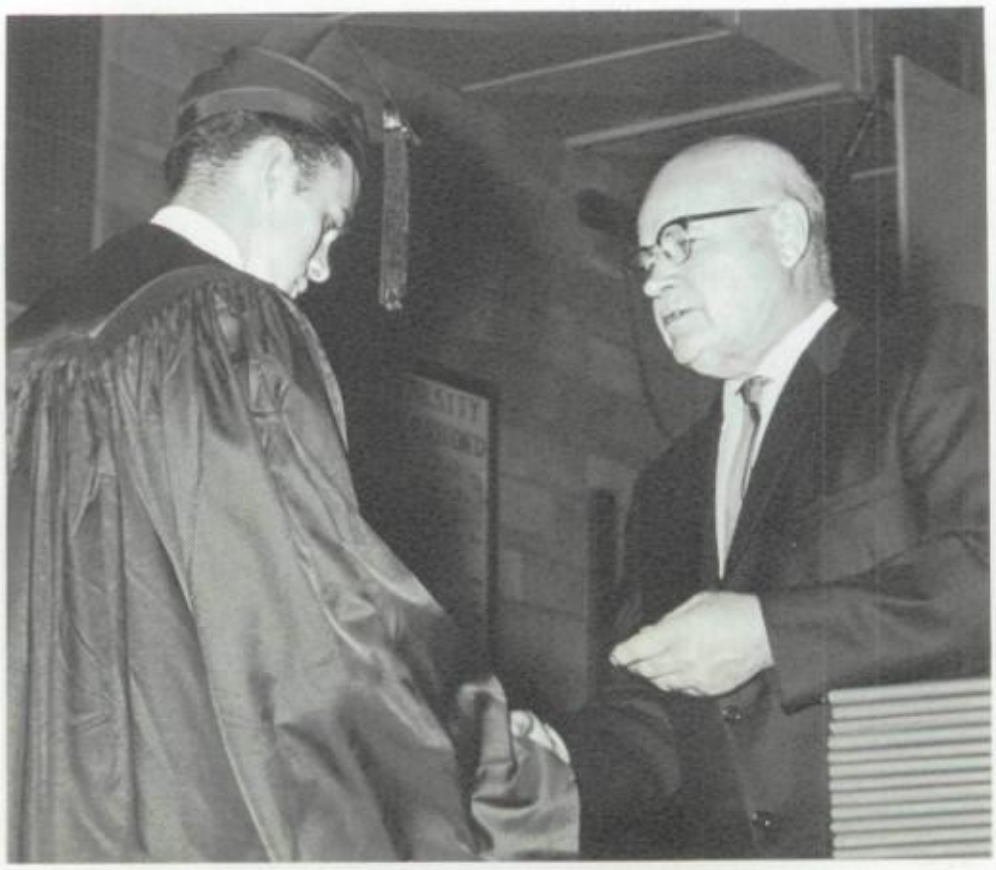
GRADUATION '65



Valedictorian James T. Eastman III



A.N. Hassel congratulates salutatorian Richard T. Taps.

DEDICATION

Long had I watched you.
When first I saw the light
Behind your eyes
I saw you struggle, as a star,
From darkness, coming into view.

Then I saw one constant beam
Warmly burned a sudden light, and
As the star is risen through
Its ageless years,
All time's immortal faith
Flared forth in you.

TO

You shall never leave here wholly.
You will be a thought remembered--
A hoped-for dream.

You will be a silence or an echo
Softly played across the room.

You will be all the question
And all the answer.

You will be a shadow, a voice
Heard in the mind.

You will be the link of friendship
And the bond of memory.

You will be
All the laughter, still not sounded;
All the joy, all the hurt
All the victory and defeat
The unborn shouts
And the still unshed tears.

You will be the future and the past.

You will be all you leave behind
For others to discover
And live
And begin again.
